

VOLUNTEER RESOURCES

JOB SEARCH

DALConnects www.dal.ca/DALConnets
 The program combines exciting and informative workshops, events, leadership retreats and conferences with valuable volunteer work experience. The directory has a list of local organizations that recruit volunteers throughout the year.

myCareer www.mycareer.dal.ca/home.htm
 The myCareer job posting section has volunteer opportunities that are specifically looking for Dalhousie students in all capacities.

Dalhousie Societies www.dsu.ca/connect-with-societies
 Dalhousie student's society's directory can connect you to a variety of societies each needing support. There are over 300 active societies ratified with the Union each year and if you didn't find the society you were looking for then maybe you want to start your own!

Volunteer Halifax www.volunteerhalifax.ca
 Most current and up to date volunteer posting page in Halifax. Connects non-profit organizations with individuals looking to volunteer with community organizations.

HRM Volunteer Services www.halifax.ca/volunteerservices/VolunteerOpportunities.php
 HRM volunteer has several volunteer positions advertised along with their contact information to connect you with non-profit, government and corporate opportunities.

Volunteer Canada www.youth.volunteer.ca
 Find valuable resources for a diverse array volunteers and organizations, volunteer centre contact information, and plenty of opportunities to give back within Canada.

Canada Service Corps <https://www.canada.ca/en/services/youth/canada-service-corps/services.html>
 Canada Service Corps offers the chance to participate in meaningful volunteer service projects that have positive impacts in communities across Canada. Not-for-profit organizations across Canada offer service projects in different communities, and based on different themes, like climate and environment, or building democracy. Young Canadians can also get micro-grant funding to lead their own service project.

Charity Village www.charityvillage.com
 The leading source for news, information, and resources in the not-for-profit sector, including a robust volunteer listing board.