

ONLINE RESOURCES

The Bissett Student Success Centre hosts a variety of comprehensive tools online so you have access whenever you need them. Access many of our tools through Dalhousie's myCareer (click the "Career Services" tab on the left-hand side, then "Career Resources"). Find job postings, resume templates, self-assessment tools, and career-planning resources online at the sites below.

Dalhousie Career and Leadership Resources

www.dal.ca/careerservices

The Bissett Student Success Centre has an extensive list of career resources online! Find career guides specialized for many majors at Dalhousie, links to our favourite job and volunteer search sites, and important information about labour standards and employment scams to watch out for! We also have PDF copies of many of our resource sheets including resume samples, cover letter templates and interview tips.

Career Cruising

www.careercruising.com

An industry-leading online career guidance and planning system. Hundreds of detailed occupation profiles can be easily accessed—everything from Actuary to Zoologist—including job descriptions, working conditions, education and training, earnings and job outlook.

Username: Dalhousie Password: Lawson

Vault

www.vault.com

Download career guides, search employer profiles and rankings, read industry blogs, and more inside Vault's Career Insider. Content is updated daily so be sure to check back regularly.

Glassdoor

www.glassdoor.com

There is a growing database of millions of company reviews, CEO approval ratings, salary reports, interview reviews and questions, benefits reviews, office photos and more.

Canada Job Bank

www.Jobbank.gc.ca

Job bank hosts job listings across the country but also contains valuable career planning resources. Check out the Career Planning and Trend Analysis sections to research where your university major can get you, the market for your chosen career in each province and check out job profiles and career quizzes!

MyWorldAbroad

www.myworldabroad.com

MyWorldAbroad is a huge online resource with many articles and resources with the focus of helping to build cross-cultural skills and develop a cultural IQ. Students of any international skill level can use the site and expand their skills.