

LAWRENCE D. STOKES SEMINAR

DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY HISTORY DEPARTMENT

Fridays, 3:30-5:00 p.m., 1170 McCain Building
6135 University Ave.

Fall 2018

September 21

"Professional anxieties: 18th-century British military engineer William Booth in Gibraltar and Nova Scotia, 1774-1789"

Bonnie Huskins, Loyalist Studies Coordinator, UNBF

September 28

"'Circled in with Enemies' Countries': Privateers and Local Politics in Restoration Jamaica"

John Coakley, Merrimack College

October 5

"The Pradyumnābhyudaya of Ravivarman: Krishna's Son Pradyumna on the Sanskrit Stage"

Chris Austin, Dalhousie University

October 12

"Historical Perspectives on the Integration of Black Refugees in Atlantic Canada, 1812-1830"

Karly Kehoe, Saint Mary's University

October 19

"Getting Old on a Jamaican Plantation: Age and Slavery in the Colonial Caribbean"

Daniel Livesay, Claremont McKenna College

Oct. 26

Roundtable: "Vladimir Putin: For and Against"

Norman Pereira & Denis Kozlov, Dalhousie University

Nov. 2

"Reviewing the Review: the Canadian Historical Review at its 100th Volume"

Shirley Tillotson, Dalhousie University

Nov. 9

"Subscription to Literary Periodicals as Evidence for an Intellectual History of Soviet Society, 1950s-1960s"

Denis Kozlov, Dalhousie University

Nov. 16

Study Break – no session

Nov. 23

"Liturgy, Music, and Hildegard of Bingen's Chant Repertory"

Jennifer Bain, Dalhousie University

Nov. 30

"In Search of Domestic Stability and Imperial Continuities: U.S.-Spanish Relations in the Reconstruction Era".

Gregg French, Saint Mary's University

Pre-circulated papers available in the History Office, 1158 McCain, by the Wednesday before. Digital copies may be requested from Valerie Peck at Valerie.peck@dal.ca.

For information or for offers to present a paper or suggestions for presenters, contact Colin Mitchell at c.mitchell@dal.ca

