

International Workshop on EUROPEAN UNION TRADE AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS: TRANSATLANTIC AND GLOBAL CHALLENGES

Dalhousie University
Sept. 15, 2023, 9:00-4:30

In a time of uncertainty and change, how will EU trade and economic relations cope with:

- rapidly evolving technology?
- populist challenges from inside and outside the union?
- unpredictable and arbitrary American trade policy?
- new economic competition from China?
- geostrategic disruptions like mass migration, the Ukraine conflict and pandemics?

JOIN US for this free hybrid workshop, open to the public in person or via Zoom.

Multidisciplinary selection of specialists from Europe, Asia and North America.

Thematic panels focusing on: Transatlantic Relations in the 21st Century; Assessing CETA after Five Years; Complexities of Transatlantic Economic Relations; Managing New Technologies in Trade; and Geopolitical Complications.

Check out the programme and other details at: www.dal.ca/jmeuce.

For more information or to register, contact jmeuce@dal.ca or 902 494-2980

With the support of the Erasmus+ programme of the European Union

DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY