BREXIT: WHAT'S NEXT? IMPLICATIONS FOR LAW AND LIFE

- Dr. Vincent Power - A&L Goodbody LLP, Ireland
- Prof. Francesco Munari - Jean Monnet Chair for European Environmental Law, University of Genoa
- Dr. Teresa Cyrus - Dept. of Economics, Dalhousie University
- Dr. Ruben Zaiotti (moderator) - Dept. of Political Science, and Director, Jean Monnet European Union Centre of Excellence, Dalhousie University

On 23 June 2016, the United Kingdom voted to leave the European Union, triggering a process that will end the UK's four-decade membership in the EU. The difficult negotiations to agree on the terms of departure have begun, with far-reaching effects for both the UK and EU, and also for Canada, which recently reached a major trade agreement with the EU. Join us to talk about the Brexit negotiations, expected outcomes, and potential implications for Canada.
