

Public Workshop on

CANADA-EU PARTNERSHIP BEYOND CETA: RESPONDING TO TRUMP’S ATTACKS

Jean Monnet European Union Centre of Excellence, Dalhousie University
22nd September 2026: 1.00-5.00 p.m.

© European Union 2026

This free, hybrid workshop will address current challenges and changes in transatlantic, legal, economic and security relations in the context of the aggressive American dismantling of the liberal trade and defence order.

Speakers from Europe and Canada will include specialists in EU governance and law, procurement, social aspects of trade, the Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) and the overarching EU-Canada partnership.

CONFIRMED PRESENTATIONS:
JAN WOUTERS KU Leuven & TANDEM	EU–Canada Strategic Partnership as an Alternative Global Governance Coalition?
AMY VERDUN University of Victoria	CETA at a Crossroads: Ratification, Implementation and the Future of EU-Canada Relations
NOAH FRY Dalhousie University	The CETA Problem: How EU-Canadian Trade Has Complicated "Canada Strong"
ROBERT FINBOW Dalhousie University	Is CETA Redundant? Populist Resistance to Ratification and Carney’s Transatlantic Outreach

JOIN US IN PERSON (subject to space) OR REMOTELY (via Teams). Early career scholars and students in EU politics and transatlantic relations are very welcome.

For the workshop programme and further details: www.dal.ca/jmeuce

To register: jmeuce@dal.ca or 902 494-2980

Co-funded by the European Union

Supported by the Office of the VPRI at Dalhousie University through the Next Wave Fund

DALHOUSIE
UNIVERSITY