

Dalhousie University's Corporate Residency MBA Pathway Scholarship Application Form

Section A: Personal Details

| | |
|-----------------------|--|
| First Name: | |
| Last Name: | |
| B# | |
| Date of Birth: | |
| Citizenship: | |
| Email Address: | |
| Undergraduate Degree: | |

Section B: Volunteer Experience

Please outline any volunteer or community involvement from the past three years.

Section C: Short Answer Questions

1. Tell us about an obstacle you have overcome in the past that led to significant personal and/or professional growth?

2. Why did you choose Dalhousie and how would this studentship impact your “life in the Dalhousie Corporate Residency MBA Pathway program”?

3. What are your future career interests and goals?

Promise Scholar Studentship

The Dalhousie Corporate Residency MBA Pathway Promise Scholars program is offered to one Canadian Indigenous [First Nations (Status, non-Status, Treaty), Inuit, Metis people of Canada] or African Canadian student, with preference given to Mi'kmaq or African Nova Scotian applicants who have attained an undergraduate degree in the last 5 years.

If you identify under one of the above-mentioned groups and wish to be considered for this studentship, please complete all sections below. To be considered for the Promise Scholar Studentship, applicants must have submitted a complete application including all supporting documents and this form by the Admissions Deadline for which they wish to be considered.

Section D: Self-Identification

I belong to the following underrepresented group(s) and wish to be considered for the Corporate Residency MBA Pathway Promise Scholar Studentship.

Please choose all that apply to you from the list below and rewrite it in the space provided.

- Canadian Indigenous Ancestry [First Nations (Status, non-Status, Treaty), Inuit, Metis]
- Mi'kmaq
- Black or African Canadian ancestry
- Black or African Nova Scotian ancestry
