Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.

Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.

Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.

Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.
Eligibility: Available to athletes in the women's basketball program at Dalhousie University (excluding the Dalhousie Faculty of Agriculture).

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Applicants will have demonstrated financial need and have satisfactory academic standing.

Nimmi and Teji Kanwal Bursary
Mr. Tejinder (Teji) and Mrs. Nirmal (Nimmi) Kanwal have cared and impacted numerous lives over the years. Although now retired, both were successful and beloved teachers for over 30 years. They grew up in India where their parents were strong believers in education and supported their schooling. Teji came to Canada in 1962 and Nimmi joined him in 1967. Travelling around the world twice, their love of adventure and travel continued throughout their lives. Both received Masters degrees from Dalhousie. They are supports of equal rights for all, which includes their support for equal opportunities for teachers in Nova Scotia. As Teji puts it "If you can't do something for someone, you are a no one."

Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.
Eligibility: Available to undergraduate students registered in the Faculty of Architecture & Planning, Arts & Social Sciences, Computer Science, Engineering, Health Professions, Management, Science, or the Dental Hygiene program. Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.

Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund
From time to time at Dalhousie contributions have been made to the University as a memorial subscription in honour of some student or former student. Until now there has been no proper place into which these funds could be channeled. Because of these occurrences a Dalhousie Memorial Bursary Fund has been established. The existence of the fund will be commemorated by a book of remembrance to be located in a prominent place in the Killam Library. Names of persons in whose memory contributions have been made by relatives, friends, individuals or groups, to the Memorial Fund will be recorded in the book, along with the date of their birth and death. The pages will be turned on a regular basis. All money contributed to the Fund will be invested by the Board of Governors and only the investment income will be awarded. The award will be available to any full-time Dalhousie student, already registered and in attendance at courses, who can show a need for additional support.

Dr. Carolyn Savoy Award of Excellence
In March of 2009, Dr. Carolyn Savoy announced her retirement from coaching, after a 32-year career of outstanding service to Dalhousie University and its women's basketball program. Carolyn continues to work as an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance at Dalhousie. Dr. Savoy came to Dalhousie in 1977 as head coach of the women's basketball team, following seven years in the same capacity at St. FX. In over three decades of coaching, Coach Savoy posted very impressive results, including an 858-292 CIS win-loss record for a 74.5 winning percentage. A four-time AUS Coach of the Year, she led the Tigers to the national final in 1980, the semifinals in 1982, to a fourth place CIS finish in 2007 and placed sixth at nationals in 1986, 1996 and 2001. Coach Savoy's teams won nine regular season AUS titles and five AUS championships. Academically, her teams had a 100% graduation record for those playing three to five years in the program. As a Level 4 basketball master course conductor, Carolyn has coached at the national and international level as an assistant with the Canadian national team program and also served as head coach of the 2001 Nova Scotia Canada Games team. She completed her BPE degree in 1969 at the University of New Brunswick. She enjoyed an outstanding athletic career at UNB, where she was a star volleyball, basketball (she played on a team that compiled a 93-game winning streak) and field hockey player. She began her coaching career at St. FX (1969-77), where she transformed both the basketball and field hockey teams into winning programs. Carolyn has been honoured with a number of prestigious awards including the 2002 Women of Excellence award in the health, sport and fitness category. In 2005 she received the Frank Baldwin award for her contribution to the development of basketball in Nova Scotia. She was also inducted to the Saint John Sport Hall of Fame as a builder in 2003.
