Deadline for Submission to Registrar's Office

Fall Term exchanges: June 15

Winter Term exchanges: November 1

Summer Term exchanges: April 1

- 2) Under the terms of this agreement, your tuition fees are payable to Dalhousie (your home university) prior to your departure, and your tuition fees will be waived by _____(your host university). All other expenses are your responsibility.
- 3) This learning agreement is your commitment to take a full course load while you are attending your host university as explained to you by the host university. If you do not take a full course load while you are abroad, it is important to note the following:
- I. Your exchange program fees that you pay to Dalhousie will not be pro-rated to reflect your actual registration at your host university.
 - II. Reducing your course load by a single course at a partner university may mean that you have to make up two courses at Dalhousie when you return.
 - III. Reducing your course load may affect your student loan eligibility. The Registrar's Office cannot sign your student loan until your learning agreement is returned with the host institution section complete.
