

Barley Party 2011

Honourary Ring Recipient – Alisha Johnson, Alumni Officer

This year, the Students' Union Executive nominated a very deserving candidate. The honorary ring recipient for 2011 is not a graduate of NSAC, but is very in touch with current students as well as Alumni. Well liked by all on campus today and from years past, she makes a habit of seeking student input and suggestions for campus events and projects, and goes above and beyond to be a contributing member of the campus community.

As a member of NSAC's Development & External Relations team, this person is the real reason the barley ring is in existence. It was she who recognized the need for a unifying symbol for NSAC Alumni, and she who has carried the project through till the end. To quote the Students' Union Executive, this recipient "exhibits a deep sense of pride in NSAC, the ring design, and what it stands for. She is an excellent ambassador of NSAC, and granting the privilege to wear the ring as an honorary alumnus would serve as a tangible token of the dedication and pride that she has for the campus community".

I am pleased to present this honorary NSAC ring to our very own, Alisha Johnson.

Presented by Colette Wyllie (Class of '10).
