FACULTY OF AGRICULTURE

Faculty of Agriculture TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD Terms of Reference

(Granted in Odd-Numbered Years)

The Faculty of Agriculture Teaching Excellence Award serves to recognize and celebrate a faculty member's contributions to teaching at the Faculty of Agriculture over more than five years.

The Faculty of Agriculture has a long history of placing a strong emphasis on excellent teaching. Many students and alumni speak with fondness about instructors of the past and present. One stimulus for a caring and competent atmosphere is the genuine enthusiasm which exists for topics being taught, and a strong desire to pass this interest on to others. This award is an important opportunity for members of the Faculty of Agriculture community to publicly support and recognize our excellent teachers. It is a way for both students and colleagues to honour a representative few of the many who have been an inspiration and a help. We hope that you will consider nominating a deserving candidate.

The Teaching Excellence Award will be made in the spring of every odd-numbered year if a suitable candidate is nominated. The contributions of the award recipient will be celebrated at a campus event.

Criteria for the award:

Activities that may be recognized by this award can include (but are not limited to):

- classroom and laboratory instruction
- development of innovative teaching methods
- production of instructional materials
- supervision of students in research
- contributions to student development outside the classroom
- curriculum development
- professional development

Eligibility:

Individual members of the Faculty (both professors and instructors) are eligible. An individual will not be eligible to receive a Teaching Excellence Award in two successive awarding cycles.

An individual who has previously received a Teaching Excellence Award will be eligible to compete based on achievements made since the previous award. The Academic Coordination Committee will be responsible for i) ensuring that this is clearly communicated to nominees and ii) using the record of the previous competition to ensure that new achievements are the basis for any subsequent award.

Nominators:

Members of the Faculty of Agriculture community (staff, faculty, students, and alumni) may nominate or support nominations. Self-sponsored nominations are permitted.

Process:

1. Nomination forms are available from the Academic Coordination Committee (ACC) Chair (Assistant Dean, Students & Academic Administration).

2. Nomination forms should be accompanied by supporting letters from the nominator and at least two other members of the Faculty of Agriculture community (faculty, staff, students or alumni) who support the nomination. These letters of support should outline how the nominee has demonstrated excellence in teaching and must be signed. Nominations are submitted to Dr. Keltie Jones, Assistant Dean, Students & Academic Administration, PO Box 550 Truro B2N 5E3, or keltie.jones@dal.ca.

3. The deadline for receipt of complete nominations is February 15th.

Following the nomination deadline, the Assistant Dean will contact nominees, and ask if they wish their name to stand. Nominees will then be asked to provide the following documents to support the nomination:

- A copy of the nominee's teaching dossier or relevant CV (max. 8 pages)
- A statement describing the nominee's contribution to teaching at the Faculty of Agriculture (max. 1 page)
- A statement of the nominee's teaching philosophy (max. 1 page) and
- Any other supporting documentation

Nominees will have at least two weeks to prepare and submit their supporting documentation to the Assistant Dean.

NOTE: All nomination papers, letters of support, and curriculum vitae will remain confidential.

4. The ACC will review the applications and determine which candidate to recommend for the award.

5. The ACC will recommend to the Dean the name of the successful nominee. The Dean will inform the successful candidate and will prepare the citation for the award recipient.

6. The award will normally be presented at a specially designated institutional function at the end of the Winter semester. (Timelines will be adjusted accordingly each year of the award.)
