

The Mrs. Nora Hickson Kelly Award - $500.00

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kelly, through the Community Foundation of Ottawa, have been generously contributing to the success of the Black Student Advising Centre (BSAC) for a number of years. This money provided by the Kelly's has been used to assist students with professional development, update computer equipment and refurbishing the Centre.

After the passing of Mrs. Nora Hickson Kelly in 2005 at the age of 95, a bursary in her honor is awarded to a student each year. Mrs. Kelly was married to W.H. Kelly, a retired Deputy Commissioner, RCMP, for 65 years. She was a well-known writer on RCMP history and also an active member of the NAACP for over 25 years.
