

Unfortunately, the passenger elevator at Dalhousie Arts Centre is currently out of service.

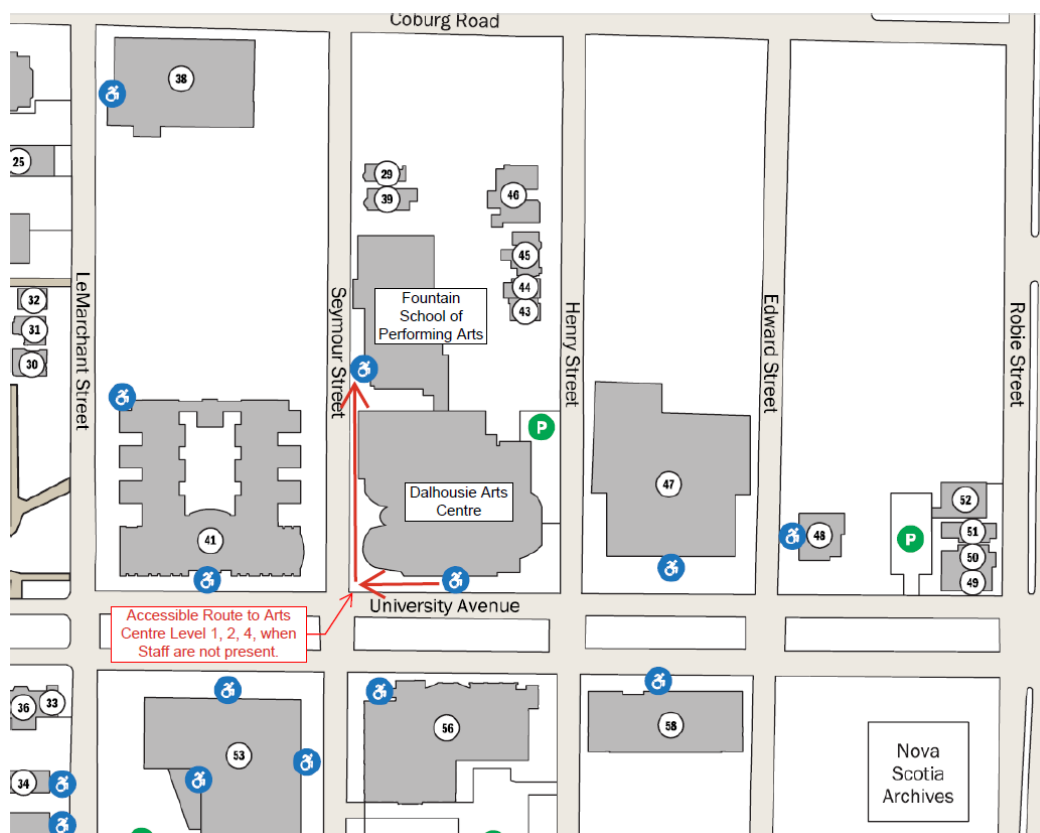

This is the result of damage to electrical components sustained during a recent power surge. Replacement parts have been ordered, and the elevator will return to service as soon as possible.

Accessibility during Rebecca Cohn Auditorium events:

- Dalhousie Arts Centre staff will be available to help facilitate access between the main lobby level and balcony level (including to restrooms) using our service elevator. This is located at the end of the main entry hallway, near the Welcome/Pjila'si/Bienvenue/Fáilte sign.

At all other times, or if staff are not present:

- Levels 1, 2, and 4 can be accessed via elevator through the Fountain School of Performing Arts Joseph Strug building entrance, on the Seymour Street side of our building at 1385 Seymour Street.

Please contact the Fountain School of Performing Arts if you require assistance accessing their offices and studios on Level 5: (902) 494-3772

Dalhousie Art Gallery is currently closed and has no active exhibitions. Please contact Dalhousie Art Gallery if you require assistance accessing their offices on Level 1: (902) 494-2403
