Peer Observation Feedback Form - Asynchronous Teaching

Instructor Name: _____

Observer Name: _____

The instructor demonstrated the following:

Criteria	Not Observed	More Emphasis	Shown Clearly	N/A
Preparation & Organization
Introduced themself to the class
Clearly stated objectives and significance of objective and activities
Organized lesson components (including content delivery and learning activities) in a logical and meaningful order
Audio-Visual Aspects
Audio was clear with minimal background noises
Appropriate eye contact was made with webcam
Instructor was easy to see with appropriate lighting and was well positioned in the frame
Visuals were utilized effectively
Video content was no longer than 20 minutes
Content Clarity & Delivery
Content was clearly described
Provides concrete examples to explain content
Content was presented in an engaging way
Describes terms/concepts/theories in more than one way
Content presented was at an appropriate level for audience
Materials were presented in a logical and meaningful order
The amount of content delivered was appropriate for student learning, neither too much nor too little Demonstrated enthusiasm in speech and in facial expressions
Voice was expressive and at an appropriate volume
Delivery was natural and not overly reliant on notes or slides

Peer Observation Feedback Form - Asynchronous Teaching

Interaction & engaged learning
Used audience-appropriate language
Provided clear instructions on how/where to ask questions
Provided asynchronous opportunities for students to contribute/engage (such as reflective questions, discussion boards, collaborative documents)
Engaged and/or facilitated the asynchronous engagement effectively
Asynchronous opportunities allowed students and instructor to assess learning
Technology supports teaching strategies
Teaching assessment & summary
Intended objective(s) were measurable
Lecture ended with a re-iteration of the key elements of the lesson
There was a sense of closure to the lesson

Strengths of the instructor:

Something(s) to improve for next time: