Appendix A Course Syllabus Guide

Dalhousie Syllabi are an extension of the University’s contract with the student. As such, all Dalhousie Syllabi should contain specific information necessary for Students to participate successfully in the Course, while other information may pertain only to specific disciplines or be included at the preference of the Instructor and/or as a requirement by the Academic Unit. These requirements and options pertain equally to undergraduate and graduate courses and to online, blended and face-to-face courses.

• Reflects information that must be included, if applicable to the course
  o Reflects information that is optional to include (unless otherwise required by the applicable Academic Unit)

SECTION A: COURSE INFORMATION

Administrative

• Course name, number, type (e.g. lecture, online) and credit hours (note when course is cross-listed)
• Course lecture, lab and/or tutorial meeting times and locations (as available)
• Instructor name(s), building/room number, office phone, email address, preferred method of contact and availability
• Learning Management System site information, if applicable
• Identity and contact information for Teaching Assistants (when known at the time of Syllabus release and if directly involved in student support)
• Any other information required by the applicable Academic Unit
  o Instructor profile(s) (e.g. website)
  o Photos of instructor(s) o Brief Teaching Philosophy Statement

Academic

• How the course is offered (face-to-face, online, blended) including minimal technical requirements for technology (laptop/computer/cell phone/tablet specifications including mic and webcam if students will be required to be heard or seen online)
• Course Learning Outcomes
• Rationale for Course
• Course Description and prerequisites (from the university calendar)
• Course Exclusions
• Tentative list and schedule of topics to be covered, if possible (remember to note university holidays)
• Required (and suggested) textbooks, readings, and other materials including electronic resources (e.g. Web, Library, LibGuide), software, equipment
• Description of class format (e.g. use of student response systems in large lectures, problem-based learning, discussion-focused)
• Any language requirements (if other than English)
• Any additional costs to be incurred by students taking the course
• Where to seek support for tutoring and academic support
• Any other information required by the applicable Academic Unit

  o Key foundational knowledge and skills expected prior to the course o Weekly optional reading assignments
  o Concept map or graphic of course themes o Overview of the history of and key approaches to the discipline
  o FAQ section
  o Study guides

Assessment Components

• Short description of work to be submitted which will count towards the final grade
• Schedule, duration and format of term assignments, tests, and final exams
• Weight of components contributing to final grade
• Other work not assessable but required (e.g. attendance at an event, class attendance, online academic integrity modules, online safety modules/quizzes, participation)
• Any compulsory attendance/participation requirements
• Assessment scale and level that indicates a pass (including any components that must be individually passed); include rubrics where possible
• Performance requirements including clearly delineated differences for undergraduate and graduate students in the same course
• Description of (or link to) conversion of numeric to letter grades and university scale descriptors
• Any experiential learning components, how they will be graded and by whom
• Where collaboration is required (e.g. group assignments or projects), a clear statement of the degree of collaboration permitted in the preparation and submission of assignments
• Any other information required by the applicable Academic Unit

  o Guiding questions for reading
  o Detailed description of work to be submitted and guidance for completion o Grading rubrics with detailed criteria for each type of assessment and grade level
  o Guidelines/requirements for citing sources (acceptable procedures, styles etc.)
  o Guidelines/requirements for formatting assignments
  o Guidelines/requirements for where and how to submit assignments
  o Guidelines/requirements for ethical considerations in student learning activities and assessments (i.e. clinical work, undergraduate research projects)
  o Guidelines/requirements for meeting EDI learning outcomes
  o Link to GPA calculator
Course-specific policies (established by Instructor or by class consensus)

- Course policies on missed or late assignments, labs, tests, mid-term and final exams
- Notification to students whether or not the Student Absence Declaration is approved for use by students in the course
- Notification to students if and how plagiarism detection software is being used by the instructor in the course
- Notification of whether lectures are being recorded and whether or not students may record lectures (subject to change based on unexpected accommodations during the course)
- Any other information required by the applicable Academic Unit

  o Processes for submission and return of student work o Netiquette guidelines (highly recommended for online courses)
  o Professionalism
  o Time frame for responding to student emails
  o Ground rules for interactions between students and with instructor(s) o Technology use in the classroom
  o Student Information Requested (information to be completed by student and submitted to instructor), and how confidentiality will be protected
  o Trigger warnings/Content warnings
  o How previous feedback from students has been used to improve the course

Online/Blended Courses

- Minimal technical requirements for technology (laptop/computer/cell phone/tablet specifications including mic and webcam if students will be required to be heard or seen online)
- Required software or online platforms that will be used in the class
- Modes of communication that will be used in the course beyond Dalhousie email and LMS
- How and when students can communicate with you, and how you plan to communicate with them. Set parameters and include a statement about expected response time for messages, emails, and voicemail. Include days of the week, or times of day, during which you will and will not respond
- Virtual office hour times and location (i.e. provide link and identify platform)
- Identify which aspects of the course will be synchronous and which will be asynchronous (NB: synchronous sessions must align to time frames noted for course by the Registrar’s Office.)
- Notify students if online proctoring software will be used in the course*
- Specify exam/test time windows and whether the exam will be synchronous or asynchronous*
- Contingency plan for technical/power related issues during tests/exams*
- Clarify due dates and times with respect to time zone differences
- Notify students if you are using LMS data or other tracking devices to grade online participation
- Notify students that when connecting to online resources from outside Canada, they are responsible for ensuring they are aware of and are observing any applicable laws of the country they are connecting from
• Any other information required by the applicable Academic Unit
• Notify students if class is being recorded and remind students about their rights and responsibilities with respect to lecture recordings and the recording of lectures as per the Classroom Recording Protocol. Identify alternative means of participation and asking questions for students who do not want to be recorded

*See the Online Exam Toolkit for more information.

o Include links to instructions or tutorials on the use of software platforms
o Netiquette guidelines
o Time Management supports (including subscribing to Brightspace notifications)
o Online participation guidelines (i.e. for discussions and other types of assessments), including tools used for participation and how to use them
o Online group work guidelines where required
o Outline of course modules
o Ergonomics and importance of physical and mental well-being in a fully online learning program

SECTION B: UNIVERSITY STATEMENTS

NB: Ideally these statements should be integrated into the learning of the course, cultivating a culture of curiosity and helping to ensure a deeper understanding of their meaning.

Provide the following links and brief statements:

• Territorial Acknowledgement:

The Dalhousie University Senate acknowledges that we are in Mi’kma’ki, the ancestral and unceded territory of the Mi’kmaq People and pays respect to the Indigenous knowledges held by the Mi’kmaq People, and to the wisdom of their Elders past and present. The Mi’kmaq People signed Peace and Friendship Treaties with the Crown, and section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 recognizes and affirms Aboriginal and Treaty rights. We are all Treaty people.¹ The Dalhousie University Senate also acknowledges the histories, contributions, and legacies of African Nova Scotians, who have been here for over 400 years.

NB: Instructors are encouraged to create their own personalized land acknowledgement statement in lieu of the Dalhousie statement, to discuss the purpose of the inclusion of the statement with their class and make explicit the connection of their statement with the content of their course. Instructors can encourage students to use the Dalhousie statement in their presentations or create their own personalized land acknowledgement in lieu of this statement.

¹ For more information about the purpose of territorial acknowledgements, or information about alternative territorial acknowledgements if your class is offered outside of NovaScotia, please visit https://native-land.ca/.

- Internationalization

At Dalhousie, ‘thinking and acting globally’ enhances the quality and impact of education, supporting learning that is “interdisciplinary, cross-cultural, global in reach, and orientated toward solving problems that extend across national borders.” https://www.dal.ca/about-dal/internationalization.html

NB: Instructors can identify global learning outcomes and intercultural competency outcomes for the teaching and learning, and assessment activities and observe the achievement of these outcomes through the formal, informal, and the hidden curriculum.

- Academic Integrity

At Dalhousie University, we are guided in all of our work by the values of academic integrity: honesty, trust, fairness, responsibility and respect. As a student, you are required to demonstrate these values in all of the work you do. The University provides policies and procedures that every member of the university community is required to follow to ensure academic integrity. (read more: http://www.dal.ca/dept/university_secretariat/academic-integrity.html)

- Accessibility

The Student Accessibility Centre is Dalhousie's centre of expertise for matters related to student accessibility and accommodation.

If there are aspects of the design, instruction, and/or experiences within this course (online or in-person) that result in barriers to your inclusion please contact:
- the Student Accessibility Centre for all courses offered by Dalhousie with the exception of Truro.
- the Student Success Centre in Truro for courses offered by the Faculty of Agriculture

Your classrooms may contain accessible furniture and equipment. It is important that these items remain in place, undisturbed, so that students who require their use will be able to fully participate.

- Conduct in the Classroom – Culture of Respect

Substantial and constructive dialogue on challenging issues is an important part of academic inquiry and exchange. It requires willingness to listen and tolerance of opposing points of view. Consideration of individual differences and alternative viewpoints is required of all class members, towards each other, towards instructors, and towards guest speakers. While expressions of differing perspectives are welcome and encouraged, the words and language used should remain within acceptable bounds of civility and respect.

- Diversity and Inclusion – Culture of Respect

Every person at Dalhousie has a right to be respected and safe. We believe inclusiveness is fundamental to education. We stand for equality. Dalhousie is strengthened in our diversity. We are a respectful and inclusive community. We are committed to being a place where everyone feels welcome and supported, which is why our Strategic Direction prioritizes fostering a culture of diversity and inclusiveness (Strategic Priority 5.2). (read more: http://www.dal.ca/cultureofrespect.html)

- Code of Student Conduct

Everyone at Dalhousie is expected to treat others with dignity and respect. The Code of Student Conduct allows Dalhousie to take disciplinary action if students don’t follow this community expectation. When appropriate, violations of the code can be resolved in a reasonable and informal manner—perhaps through a restorative justice process. If an informal resolution can’t be reached, or would be inappropriate, procedures exist for formal dispute resolution.

- Fair Dealing policy

The Dalhousie University Fair Dealing Policy provides guidance for the limited use of copyright protected material without the risk of infringement and without having to seek the permission of copyright owners. It is intended to provide a balance between the rights of creators and the rights of users at Dalhousie.

- Originality Checking Software (Mandatory to include if being used)

The course instructor may use Dalhousie’s approved originality checking software and Google to check the originality of any work submitted for credit, in accordance with the Student Submission of Assignments and Use of Originality Checking Software Policy. Students are free, without penalty of grade, to choose an alternative method of attesting to the authenticity of their work, and must inform the instructor no later than the last day to add/drop classes of their intent to choose an alternate method.

- Student Use of Course Materials

These course materials are designed for use as part of the [course code] course at Dalhousie University and are the property of the instructor unless otherwise stated. Third party copyrighted materials (such as books, journal articles, music, videos, etc.) have either been licensed for use in this course or fall under an exception or limitation in Canadian Copyright law. Copying this course material for distribution (e.g. uploading to a commercial third-party website) may lead to a violation of Copyright law.

SECTION C: UNIVERSITY POLICIES, GUIDELINES and RESOURCES for SUPPORT

Instructors may choose to include Section C with their Syllabus or may instead refer to it, providing a link, in their Syllabus. The University Policies, Guidelines and Resources for Support for Section C and their respective links will be made available on the Centre for Learning and Teaching (CLT) website, on the homepage of the Learning Management System (LMS) and on the Dalhousie Academic Support website.

Dalhousie courses are governed by the academic rules and regulations set forth in the Academic Calendar and the Senate.

Important student information, services and resources are available as follows:

Provide list of links as below OR use links above to direct students to these resources:

University Policies and Programs
- Important Dates in the Academic Year (including add/drop dates)
- Classroom Recording Protocol
- Grading Practices Policy
- Grade Appeal Process
- Sexualized Violence Policy
- Scent-Free Program

Learning and Support Resources
- General Academic Support – Advising Halifax, Truro
- Student Health & Wellness Centre
- On Track (helps you transition into university, and supports you through your first year at Dalhousie and beyond)
- Indigenous Student Centre. See also: Mi'kmaq and Indigenous Relations
- Elders-in-Residence (The Elders in Residence program provides students with access to First Nations elders for guidance, counsel and support. Visit the office in the Indigenous Student Centre or contact the program at elders@dal.ca or 902-494-6803.)
- Black Student Advising Centre
- International Centre
- South House Sexual and Gender Resource Centre
- LGBTQ2SIA+ Collaborative
- Dalhousie Libraries
- Copyright Office
- Dalhousie Student Advocacy Services
- Dalhousie Ombudsperson
- Human Rights and Equity Services
- Writing Centre
• Study Skills/Tutoring
• Faculty or Departmental Advising Support (Note: there is a different link for each faculty, and possibly for different departments or programs)

Safety
Required links to provide, if any of the following apply to discipline/course:
• Biosafety
• Chemical Safety
• Radiation Safety
• Laser Safety