Speak Up!

Your feedback supports change:

1. Helps to enhance teaching practice and course delivery at Dalhousie.
2. Is incorporated into the development and planning of new educational programs and courses throughout the University.
3. Assists TAs and instructors to improve and document their teaching practice.
4. Acts as evidence of teaching effectiveness used for the promotion and tenure of instructors and staff, and in Teaching Award applications.

When and How to do the SLEQ?

The SLEQs open two weeks prior to the class end date and end on the last day of the class.

There are two ways respond:

1. You will receive an email from SLEQ@dal.ca containing a link to all available SLEQ forms
2. Directly Via Brightspace

A link to the form will become available in Brightspace under the SLEQ link on the main page.

After the initial invitation, at least 3 reminders will be sent to non-respondents.

For shorter courses

Evaluated after 80% of the course is completed. Forms are open for a maximum of two weeks and minimum of 2 days.
