

SUMMER PROGRAM: ENGLISH IMMERSION

Thank you for your interest in the English language immersion course at Dalhousie University this summer. Our program begins on July 6 and ends on August 8, 2025. Participation in the program is open to all persons 16 years or older by July 6, 2025. The current cost of participation is $3850 (CAD) tax included.

Our Program

We are pleased to offer instruction at all levels (beginner, intermediate, advanced) as well as cultural and recreational activities designed to stimulate spontaneous expression in the second language. Students are grouped according to their level of competence in classes limited to 15-17 students in each. Students attend classes for 3 hours daily, Monday to Friday, in the morning or the afternoon. Instruction, entirely in English, addresses structural and theoretical questions (grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation), is based on the development of communicative competence (understanding and expression, both oral and written), and the active participation of students. In addition to the classes, each student chooses a special interest workshop: journalism, theatre, music, book and film club, science, or history of Nova Scotia. These workshops meet for 3 hours each day, Monday- Friday, either morning or afternoon.

Students can also participate in various sporting activities, such as swimming, tennis, volleyball, basketball, and badminton. There are also cultural and social activities, such as visits to museums and places of historical importance, student variety shows, dances, a boat tour of the Halifax Harbour, and days at the beach. To add to the enjoyment of these activities, we encourage you to bring whatever suits your interests and talents, for example, musical instruments, sporting equipment, etc.

It is important to note that the fee covers: tuition and learning materials (but not pens, notebooks, dictionaries, etc.); obligatory excursions and some optional activities; room and board, including 3 meals each day (beginning at 17:00 on July 6th). The fee does not cover pocket money, the non-refundable registration deposit of $275, the refundable $100 damage deposit or the cost of transportation to and from Halifax.

Public Health

Dalhousie University is committed to maintaining a working and learning environment where health and safety are protected and exposure to communicable diseases is controlled and minimized. We require and expect compliance with all applicable legislation, Nova Scotia Public Health directives, and university policies during your participation in the EXPLORE Program.

Total Immersion

Because our program aims to provide a comprehensive experience in language and culture, and because the program is based on the principle of total immersion, the use of English in all circumstances is obligatory. We attach fundamental importance to this rule. Students risk expulsion from the program if they do not adhere to this established rule. Please read carefully the conditions for participation attached on another page. We ask you to affirm your agreement to respect the conditions described and to send the signed agreement along with your fee.

Post-secondary credits

This immersion course does not count as an academic credit at Dalhousie University. However, students who are pursuing their studies at post-secondary institutions are usually able to obtain credit for this program from their home institution. Each post-secondary institution follows its policies, so we advise you to ask at your institution about obtaining credits. Dalhousie University will award to students who complete the course a letter of attestation, indicating the course content and the level attained.
