

Initiative Award

Irving Sharpe

AC Instrumentation Technician

In April of 2021 the power generator at the AC was offline - a big and costly problem because the plant supplies the main Nova Scotia Power grid. This was costing almost $5-thousand per day. The problem was not easily fixed but thanks to Irving Sharpe's tenacity and perseverance he discovered a wiring problem. He continued to trouble-shoot very complex integrated systems without giving up until he found the solution.