

Give me a Sign!

Ed Bowers of the AC Trades team applied his expertise in the quick installation of signage to welcome new and returning students to campus which was most appreciated by the staff at Student Success.

“We submitted a request to have outside signage (Welcome Signage) posted for our students on campus. It was completed the day of our request. We are very thankful and appreciative of how quickly and expertly this signage was put in place with a very thoughtful and student centered approach.”

Anonymous, Student Success - AC
September 2020

