

2018 VALUES AWARD FOR RESPECT

CRAIG SHELTON

Craig made a positive impression on a summer camper in a wheelchair and her caregiver when he quickly responded to their concern about challenges with an accessible washroom.

Craig also took the lead a flood at the McDonald building last Christmas, and a chemical issue in the Chemistry building. He earned respect in both cases through the way he handled communications with our clients.

