AC Trades the Key to Success

The Facilities Management trades team in Truro was instrumental in the success of Community Day 2026. If it wasn't for them, the day would never happen. They have the hardest jobs setting everything up and tearing everything down after an exhausting day. Their work is truly appreciated.

In addition, they raised money for the Colchester Food Network and lent a hand wherever needed. All with a smile. It was very much appreciated.

Stephanie Rogers
Communications Manager · Dalhousie University Faculty of Agriculture