

RESPECT WEEK | SEPT 25-29

Fostering Inclusion, Together.

PINK DAY SEPTEMBER 28, 2017

Security C-Shift Marks Respect Week

On Monday night, members of Dalhousie Security "C" Shift kicked off respect week by handing out respect-themed candy – featuring slips of paper with Dal Security information and quotes regarding the concept of respect. Dressed in their pink security uniforms; Officers Dan Park, David Adeyemi, Chelsea Humphrey and Sean Higgins went to the Killam Library, Sexton Library and "B" Building Lounge, and the CHEB Building to distribute the candy and show their support. Some of the quotes on the candy included "Respect starts with you" and "One of the most sincere forms of Respect is actually listening to what another has to say." The students they spoke with were very supportive of the initiative and the comments received were overwhelmingly positive. Many people said that they thought that Dal Respect Week was a great idea and that they loved the pink uniform shirts.
