The interests of the MacEachen Institute are wide-ranging, and we invite expressions of interest from a breadth of academic disciplines. Please consult our research themes. Since our launch in 2016, the MI has been engaged in varied policy areas, and with diverse communities. Please consult our website for a list of past events and research projects. Our list of Founding Fellows and Junior Fellows provides information on successful applicants in previous processes.

Dalhousie University commits to achieving inclusive excellence through continually championing equity, diversity, inclusion, and accessibility. The MacEachen Institute encourages applications from Indigenous persons (especially Mi'kmaq), persons of Black/African descent (especially African Nova Scotians), and members of other racialized groups, persons with disabilities, women, persons identifying as members of 2SLGBTQ+ communities, and all candidates who would contribute to the diversity of our community.
