

 DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY UNIVERSITY POLICY REGARDING ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS	Policy Sponsor: Board of Governors	Approved Date: Senate: June 10, 2013 Board: June 25, 2013
	Responsible Unit: President's Office	Amendments: Board: June 27, 2017

A. Background & Purpose

As a leading Canadian comprehensive research intensive academic institution, Dalhousie requires a variety of academic appointments to carry out its mission. Dalhousie recognizes the importance of its academic community and insists upon rigor in its academic appointments processes.

The purpose of this policy is to establish a single reference point for all academic appointments. It is intended to clarify the processes required by Dalhousie for valid academic appointments.

B. Application

This policy applies to all academic appointments at Dalhousie.

This policy does not address the terms and conditions of employment underlying most academic appointments. It does not replace Dalhousie's Collective Agreements or other employment contracts of arrangements, the terms of which are paramount in the event of conflict.

C. Definitions

1. Academic Appointment – a status at Dalhousie University reserved exclusively for individuals who have academic qualifications and whose primary responsibilities are of an academic nature. These include:
 - a. Indefinite Academic Appointment – an academic appointment with Tenure, as Continuing Instructor, Continuing Counsellor or Professional Librarian without term.
 - b. Limited-term Appointment - an academic appointment with a fixed termination date. Limited-term appointments cannot be converted into other kinds of appointments.

c. Tenure Stream Appointments

- i. Probationary Tenure-Track (PTT) - the first academic appointment in the traditional academic stream, normally three years in duration, with a fixed termination date. Consideration for reappointment to a tenure-track appointment occurs as of right during a PTT appointment.
- ii. Tenure-Track (TT) - the second academic appointment in the traditional academic appointment stream, normally three years in duration, with a fixed termination date. Consideration for appointment with tenure occurs as of right during a TT appointment.
- iii. Tenure - an academic appointment with a traditional workload profile without a fixed termination date.

d. Instructor Appointments

- i. Probationary Instructor -the first and the second academic appointments in the teaching-only stream, each normally three years in duration. Probationary Instructor appointments have fixed termination dates.
- ii. Continuing Instructor - a teaching-only academic appointment without a fixed termination date.

e. Librarian Appointments

- i. Probationary Professional Librarian - the first and the second academic appointments in the Professional Librarian stream, each normally three years in duration. Probationary Professional Librarian appointments have fixed termination dates.
- ii. Professional Librarian Without Term - a Professional Librarian academic appointment without a fixed termination date.

f. Counsellor Appointments

- i. Probationary Counsellor - the first and the second academic appointments in the Professional Counsellor stream, each normally three years in duration. Probationary Counsellor appointments have fixed termination dates.
- ii. Continuing Counsellor - a Counsellor academic appointment without a fixed termination date.

- g. Faculty of Medicine Clinical Appointments
 - i. Continuing Appointment with Annual Academic Career Development (Continuing Clinical Appointments) - an academic appointment for clinical faculty members in clinical departments of the Faculty of Medicine that does not confer employment status.
 - ii. Academic Unpaid Appointment - an unpaid academic appointment for clinical faculty members in the Faculty of Medicine that does not confer employment status. Normally with a fixed termination date, these appointments are made with the expectation of benefit to the University.
- h. Part-time Appointments
 - i. Academic Appointment < 50% - an academic appointment at less than .5 FTE. An academic appointment <50% normally has a fixed termination date.
 - ii. Part-time Academic - an academic appointment approved on a course-by-course basis.
 - iii. Academic Support Appointments - hourly paid academic appointments providing instruction or classroom and/or laboratory assistance to a teacher in course presentation, delivery, and/or marking. These include Teaching Assistants, Markers, Demonstrators and lab instructors.
- i. Other Academic Appointments
 - i. Adjunct Appointment - an unpaid academic appointment that does not confer employment on an appointee, but permits collaboration with an appointee with special qualifications in teaching or research. Adjunct appointments normally have fixed termination dates.
 - ii. Professor Emeritus - a post retirement honourific reserved for a minority of retirees following retirement from Dalhousie. Appointment as Professor Emeritus does not confer employment on an appointee.
- 2. Academic Reappointment - reappointments to TT, Probationary Instructor, Probationary Professional Librarian and Probationary Counsellor. Consideration for academic reappointment occurs as of right during initial full-time and regular part-time academic appointments.
- 3. Board - the Board of Governors of Dalhousie University.

4. Cross Appointment - an unpaid academic appointment made to reflect active involvement in teaching, research, or supervision of graduate students in more than one academic unit, normally with a fixed termination date.
5. FTE – full-time equivalency.
6. Full-time and Regular Part-time Academic Appointments - academic appointments equal to or greater than .5 FTE. These include PTT, TT, Tenured, Probationary Instructor, Continuing Instructor, Probationary Librarian, Librarian Without Term, Probationary Counsellor, Continuing Counsellor, and Limited-term appointments.
