

KILLAM LIBRARY ATRIUM
CONDITIONS OF SPACE USE
2013

The primary purpose of the atrium is for the enjoyment of faculty, staff, students and visitors. To this end it is managed to be free from advertizing or solicitation for any product, service or event or anything that would interfere with or interrupt the free flow of traffic and social interaction.

Only the following exceptions apply (incorporating existing uses):

1. Operation of one coffee outlet
2. Operation of two food outlets
3. Advertisement by Student Services for student international career and study opportunities (maximum twice per year)
4. Voting for university and Student Union sanctioned elections
5. University United Way kickoff event
