

Nomination Form

The Atlantic Agricultural Hall of Fame seeks to recognize individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the agriculture industry in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, and Newfoundland and Labrador.

To submit a nomination please fill in the form below. Nominations must include a biographical sketch of the nominee, including education and work history, leadership and community involvement, and a summary of their contributions to agriculture.

Guidelines

- Nominators must be members of the Atlantic Agricultural Hall of Fame, either as an individual, organization, or corporation
- Nominations must be submitted in full to the Chair of the AAHF, including the nomination form and supplemental information describing the nominee's contributions to agriculture
- Nominations close June 1st at midnight for consideration in the current year.

Nominations are reviewed by provincial selection committees, which will evaluate the impact that nominees have made to the industry. The names, biographical information, and other submitted information will be shared with these committees. Nominees, if not selected, will be considered for an additional five years.

Please send completed nomination by email to: aahf@dal.ca
