

CENTURIES OF DIALOGUE: ASIA AND THE WEST

CTMP, EMSP, HSTC Lecture Series with Douglas L. Berger

Take a fascinating intellectual journey through 500 years of encounters between South and East Asian philosophical traditions and Western thinkers. Discover how these encounters have helped to shape and transform European, North American and Asian cultures. Explore the extent of Western understanding of ancient Asian ideas and practices through the study of classical and modern Hindu, Buddhist, Confucian, and Daoist traditions of thought. A number of nationally and internationally renowned scholars will help to guide us through the journey.

FALL 2014

- September 11      Simon Kow, University of King's College
"China in Enlightenment Political Thought"
- October 2          Dhruv Raina, JNU, Delhi, India and Ruprecht-Karls Universität, Heidelberg
"Rewriting the History of Science and Philosophy in Late Colonial India "
- October 16        Robin Wang, Loyola Marymount University, Los Angeles
"Yinyang: The Way of Ways"
- October 23        Roger Ames, University of Hawai'i at Manoa
"Confucian China in a Changing World Cultural Order"
- November 6        Sundar Sarukkai, Manipal Center for Philosophy and Humanities, India
"Indian Logic as Semiotics"
- November 20      Christopher Austin, Dalhousie University
"The Brahmin Sannyasi: The Role of Renunciation in Orthodox Hindu Philosophy"

All lectures will be held at 7:00 p.m. and are open to the public
KTS Lecture Hall • New Academic Building • University of King's College

For further information, please contact Douglas Berger
Douglas.Berger@ukings.ca

Sponsored by: Contemporary Studies Programme, Early Modern Studies Programme and History of Science and Technology Programme, University of King's College,
Chinese Studies Program, Dalhousie University