

Presented by the Office of International Relations in Celebration of the 10th anniversary of Dalhousie's Chinese Studies Program

DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY'S CHINA DAY

Tuesday
October 25

2nd Floor, Student Union Building
6136 University Avenue

For more information go to:

dal.ca/chinesestudies

RSVP: OIR@dal.ca

Free limited seating

1:30 PM — FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES, STUDY/RESEARCH IN CHINA, BEST PRACTICES & MORE

Xinyu Yang, Minister Counselor of Education, Embassy of the People's Republic of China to Canada

Learn about funding opportunities for students and faculty to study or research in China. Explore best practices for student/faculty mobility and graduate education cooperation such as joint degree programs. The new initiative "Canada Learning Initiative in China", a for-credit program of study in China, will be introduced.

2:30 PM — SCHOLARSHIPS, CHINA STUDY PROGRAM, PROFICIENCY TESTS & MORE

Maria Pan, Chinese Director of the Confucius Institute at Saint Mary's University

Learn about programs and services offered by the Confucius Institute (CI@SMU) such as the Confucius Institute Scholarships, China Study Program, Chinese Summer Camps and Chinese Proficiency Tests (HSK, HSKK).

3:30 PM — WESTERN CONCEPTIONS OF CHINA, BOOK LAUNCH

Dr. Simon Kow, Associate Professor of Humanities at the University of King's College

Dr. Kow discusses how his work at the East-West Center at the University of Hawaii helped inform his new book, China in Early Enlightenment Political Thought (Routledge), as well as his teaching and research. The book is the first to provide in-depth comparative analyses of seminal European Enlightenment thinkers that specifically link their views on China to their political concerns.

4:30 PM — CHINESE COLLABORATIONS: RESEARCH AND ACADEMIC HIGHLIGHTS

Panelists share their experiences collaborating on joint degree programs, joint research initiatives and more with Chinese Institutions.

6-7:30 PM — RECEPTION

6-6:30 PM — CALLIGRAPHY DEMONSTRATION BY DR. LEI JIANG

6:30-7:30 PM: — LIVE TRADITIONAL CHINESE MUSIC AND DANCE BY NOVA SCOTIA CHINESE CULTURE AND ART CLUB

7:30 PM — SHORT ANIMATED FILM SCREENING

Introduction: Dr. Shannon Brownlee, Assistant Professor, Film Studies, Fountain School of Performing Arts, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

Join us for an evening of short animated films about Chinese culture and history featuring films from Canada's National Film Board and from the stop-motion animation company, 杭州相人偶动漫有限公司. (Note: Not recommended for young children.)

CHINA IN CANADA

