

ENGL 5006 Studies in Research-Creation

This course aims to familiarize students with the recent debates and developments in and around the concept of Research-Creation by turning to theoretical articulations as well as the products of Research-Creation in literary (and adjacent) contexts.