

On April 21st, 2016 the Dalhousie Undergraduate History Society buried a time capsule on campus which contained letters, images, mementos and posters from different Arts and Social Sciences Societies and members of the Faculty. The time capsule, not to be uncovered for ten years, was a wonderful way to end a year at Dal by leaving behind a part of our year on campus.