

THEATRE AWARD TERMS AND DEADLINES

September 2018

The Fountain School's Student Affairs Committee is responsible for overseeing all student awards, unless otherwise noted. Awards are listed in order of the time of year they are presented to students.

PRESENTED AT FIRST PLAY

Andrew and David Stitt Memorial Prize: Two prizes of $500 each

To honour the memory of Theatre students Andrew and David Stitt. Awarded annually to two students entering the third year of the Acting Program who have shown promise in, and passion for, acting. Recipients are selected by the Acting Faculty at their first meeting in September each year.

PRESENTED AT SECOND PLAY

(October 15 deadline for nominations and/or student letters as applicable)

Charles and Mary MacLennan Bursary in Theatre: Two bursaries of $2500 each

Established to honour the memory of Charles G. MacLennan, who was active in the musical life of Dalhousie University, and his wife, Mary Jackson MacLennan, who had a lifelong interest in amateur theatre. Two bursaries are awarded annually to undergraduate students in Theatre who have shown artistic excellence in theatre (acting, writing, design, etc.). For students in their 3rd and 4th year of study towards a BA in Theatre with a GPA of 3.5 or higher - based on artistic excellence in Theatre and financial need. Applicants must complete the regular Dalhousie University online bursary application process to help determine financial need. King's students must apply to the bursary program at King's. Applicants will also apply in writing to the Student Affairs Committee, which will make the final selection decision. If a case arises where there are two students eligible for a bursary, the student in a position of greater financial need shall be chosen.

Christine Zinck Scholarships: Four awards of $1000 each

Awarded in each of the four Theatre program areas. Faculty members from each area will nominate students to the FSPA Student Affairs Committee. Awarded to fourth-year undergraduate students who clearly demonstrate that they are working towards a degree. Academic standing will be a factor in selecting the recipients and the minimum GPA of the recipient will be 3.5. The students selected will also demonstrate commitment and dedication within the Fountain School of Performing Arts above and beyond the academic requirements.

Blackmore Bursary Fund Award: Funding from Neptune Theatre

This award was created by Neptune Theatre to honour master scenic carpenters John and William Blackmore. It is awarded annually to a student in their third year of a Design and Technical Theatre program who has shown promise in, and passion for, work in technical theatre and stage design. The recipient of this award is chosen by the Faculty and Staff in the Design and Technical Theatre program and communicated to the Student Affairs Committee.

Costume Studies Scholarship: Varies annually

Awarded annually to the in-course student entering the final year of the Costume Studies Program who has attained the highest marks in Costume Studies classes (with no mark below B in any of the classes). The award is made possible by the alumni and friends of the costume Studies Program as well as from proceeds from the Costume Studies end of year show. The Student Affairs Committee, with the knowledge of the FSPA Director and in conjunction with Costume Studies faculty, decide on the recipient. The amount of the Scholarship is determined by how much Investment Revenue is available from the fund each year. Revenue from the year-end show is deposited to this account to build the investment.

Lyn Gratwick Theatre Arts Guild Scholarship in Costume Studies: $1600

Awarded annually, in memory of Lyn Gratwick who was for many years an expert costumer for the Theatre Arts Guild, one of Canada's oldest community theatres. Given to one (or more) student(s) in the Costume Studies program who has or have demonstrated artistic excellence in costume-making for theatre and intend(s) to pursue a career as a costumer for a professional theatre company or an historic site. Eligible applicants must have completed at least three years of study in their undergraduate program at Dalhousie. To apply, students must submit a letter to the FSPA Student Affairs Committee describing their artistic excellence in the field of costume-making and outlining their career plans. In the letters, students should:

- provide details demonstrating their pursuit of artistic excellence in costume-making. (For example, have you successfully created a challenging costume or costumes? Have you been invited to work at professional theatre companies or historic sites over the summer? Have you achieved highly in costume-related classes?)
- say a few words about how their career plans fit into the award criteria. (Do you plan to pursue a career in professional theatre or in historical site costuming? What steps do you hope to take to achieve your goals?)

Fountain Prize in Theatre: Amount varies; 2017-18 prize was $4000

The Student Affairs Committee may also award two prizes to students who demonstrate exceptional artistic merit, normally one in each of Theatre and Music. Students must have completed one year of study to be eligible.

AWARDED IN FALL TERM (NOT PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS)

Fountain In-Course Performing Arts Scholarships

To support GPA achievement of students in Theatre degree programs. GPA based, no nominations needed.

PRESENTED AT FINAL PLAY

AFBS-Ferne Downey Scholarship in Acting: $5000 (new in 2017-18)

The award is for students entering the third or fourth year of study in the Acting Program who maintain a GPA of 3.0. Students must demonstrate artistic excellence and a commitment to performing arts in the community. The award is announced at the final play with funds transferred to the student the following September. This is an annually funded award. Need to confirm commitment of funds for 2019-20.

Theatre Awards: Four awards of $300 each (nominations due by February 15)

For students who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in the programs of Theatre, with a minimum GPA of 3.3. The awards will normally be made at the completion of the student's third year of study in the Theatre program. The exception will be the Basil Cooke Award which will be available to students in the second year of their program. These awards are not necessarily annual. FSPA will have the discretion to use the funds to supplement other student awards in a given year.

- a) The Basil Cooke Award – for students enrolled in the Costume Studies program. The award is named in memory of Basil Cooke, a longtime supporter of the Dal Theatre.
- b) The Blanche Potter Award – for students enrolled in the Design and Technical Theatre program. This award is named in memory of Blanche Potter, a former administrative officer of the Theatre Department.

- c) The Robert Merritt Award – for students enrolled in the Theatre Studies program. This award is named in memory of Robert Merritt, a longtime Theatre Studies professor
- d) The Martin Surette Award – for students enrolled in the Acting program. This award was founded in memory of Martin Surette, a passionate student of Dal Theatre.

Jopling Award for Out-of-Country Studies: $2000 (application deadline is February 28)

Awarded to one student annually. To assist students enrolled in Theatre at Dalhousie University to further their knowledge of theatre by study in another country during the summer period. The successful recipient will hold a minimum GPA of 3.5 and make a strong case in writing (250 – 500 words) outlining how their intended course of study outside the country will enhance their overall educational goals. Criteria:

- Students must be enrolled full-time in a Theatre program at Dalhousie University, and will have completed at least one year (both fall and winter semesters) of their program.
- Students will have been accepted to study theatre at an institution in a country other than Canada. This program of study will be approved by FSPA; however, it is not mandatory that such study be eligible for credit towards the student's program of study at Dalhousie University.
- Although the award is for study in a country other than Canada, this does not preclude (the) eligible recipient(s) being enrolled in a course offered by Dalhousie University or another Canadian educational institution, with a portion of that course being conducted in Canada.
- The FSPA will be solely responsible for the final selection of (the) award recipient(s), and may base this decision on selection criteria added at their discretion in a given year.
- In the event that no student who fits these criteria in a given year, earnings from the fund will be reinvested into the principal of the fund.

Walker Wood Bursary: $4000 renewable (application deadline February 15)

The next award year is 2018-19. This is a four-year renewable in-course bursary to a Theatre major at Dalhousie University. The Walker Wood Foundation is dedicated to the funding of post-secondary education at all levels to candidates who have high academic standing, demonstrated leadership or similar qualities and who might have otherwise found it difficult to afford further education. Recipients are chosen by the Registrar's office in consultation with the Student Affairs Committee. To be eligible:

- The student must be a Canadian citizen
- Preference will be made to students entering directly from high schools in Atlantic Canada.
- The recipient will have demonstrated financial need.
- The recipient must maintain good academic standing.
- Students must complete the Dalhousie in-course undergraduate bursary application.

If the recipient of the bursary is not accepted into Theatre program, or decides to transfer out of Theatre, then the Awards Office may select another student who fits the above criteria and is in the same program year as the previous recipient. To apply, the student 1) applies via the online bursary form and 2) writes a letter to the Student Affairs Committee.

CONVOCATION AWARDS (awarded at end-of-year reception)

These awards are determined in consultation with the Associate Director (Theatre) and the FSPA Director, upon review of the year-end GPA report, and recipients' names are reported to the Dal Awards office for the Convocation program.

University Medal in Theatre:

To the top First Class Honours graduate a medal in recognition of superior achievement based on the highest GPA in all classes.

Christine Zinck Book Award:

Given to the best Theatre Studies graduating Honours student who is not receiving the University Medal. The recipient is given a book or books that are significant to their area of study.

Women's Division – Dalhousie Alumni Association Medal in Costume Studies:

This medal is presented annually to the graduating student with the highest cumulative GPA in the Costume Studies Program.

Cinema and Media Studies Prize: $500

To provide an annual prize to an outstanding graduating student enrolled in the Cinema and Media Studies program. Selected by Cinema and Media Studies faculty members based on the highest overall GPA in Film classes.
