

Application to Audition for 3199 Half Recital as Elective

Available to exceptional students in the fourth year of a 20-credit Music degree program, by audition. Students must have completed all 2000-level music theory courses as per Calendar guidelines. Students must have a co-requisite of a minimum 4000-level applied study course. Please note that additional fees may apply for students not in BMus Performance.

This performance is a solo recital. Recital repertoire should consist of 30 to 45 minutes of music.

Performance auditions are normally held on the day after classes end in winter term. Students who are accepted to perform a half-recital as an elective must submit recital date options, in consultation with their applied instructor and accompanist, immediately following their first lesson in September.
