MUSC 4399: Graduation Requirement (Thesis) Guidelines

B.Mus. students in the Musicology concentration and in the B.A. Honours degree must write a thesis as their graduation requirement. The honours thesis will be submitted for review by the supervisor and a second reader. A minimum grade of B- (GPA 2.7) is required to graduate.

Honours Thesis: The honours thesis is a substantial piece of writing, 25-35 pages in length, on a topic chosen by the student and agreed to by the supervisor. It is the responsibility of the student to approach potential supervisors and obtain their agreement to the topic chosen. The project should demonstrate mastery of the mechanics of writing, as well as skill at:

1. defining a problem;
2. researching the literature more widely than in a course paper;
3. developing a critical approach and establishing a theoretical framework;
4. organizing a longer piece of writing;
5. revising in response to criticism;
6. using musical examples correctly and effectively.

Evaluation: The thesis will be read and evaluated by the supervisor and by a second reader. The Musicology Coordinator will select the second reader based on the supervisor’s recommendation when the thesis form is completed.
