An introduction to the important cultural concepts of death and disorder as expressed by major Russian writers of the nineteenth to twenty-first centuries. Become acquainted with the theory of a variety of literary forms while exploring texts in translation and contextualizing the development of the Russian national tradition.

Dr. Inna Tigountsova

MW 14:35-15:55 McCain 2022

Taught in English - No Prerequisites