

Instructor, Master of Applied Computer Science Program

Position Details

Position Information

Position Title	Instructor, Master of Applied Computer Science Program
Type of position	Limited Term
Department/Unit	Computer Science
Location	Halifax

About the opportunity

The Faculty of Computer Science is seeking a candidate for a limited term instructor position (beginning as soon as possible and continuing to August 30, 2021). The position will primarily involve teaching graduate courses predominantly in the Master of Applied Computer Science Program, and participating in other Faculty administration and student affairs, such as the Master of Applied Computer Science Committee and student advising. The course areas to be taught include Cloud Computing, Databases, Data Management, Data mining, and Data Warehousing.

The successful candidates to this position must meet the following requirements:

- At least a Masters degree in Computer Science or related discipline
- Experience teaching at a university

Although the instructor is not expected to conduct research, the successful candidate will have a well-defined area of interest in CS in which they will remain current and be able to teach senior-level and graduate courses.

Eligible candidates are encouraged to apply for this position with a package including a C.V.; cover letter; a teaching dossier; and the addresses and emails of three references.

Application packages should be submitted in PDF format via PeopleAdmin by March 25, 2020. Please also arrange for your referees to forward letters of reference directly to appointments@cs.dal.ca by the same deadline.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Dalhousie University is committed to fostering a collegial culture grounded in diversity and inclusiveness. The university encourages applications from Indigenous persons, persons with a disability, racially visible persons, women, persons of a minority sexual orientation and/or gender identity, and all candidates who would contribute to the diversity of our community.
