

Join us for an open, authentic chat about pharmacy residency programs at Dalhousie College of Pharmacy! This resident-led panel discussion is your chance to hear real stories, ask questions, and get insider tips. Whether you're curious about the journey, the challenges, or the success stories, our goal is to create a space where lived experiences as a pharmacy resident can be shared. Bring your questions, your goals, and an open mind to consider how a residency program may fit your future!
