

PhD in Health Program Annual Supervisor Report

Once completed, typically by the end February, the supervisor(s) should email this form to all the committee members, the student and phdhealth@dal.ca.

Date:

Student Name:

Supervisory Committee Members:

Supervisor(s):

Members:

PhD Health program goals:

- Students are required to submit a Graduate Student Program Form by November 30 of Year 1.
- Students are advised to meet with supervisory committees at least twice per year.
- Students normally complete all coursework by the end of Year 1 (Year 2 for a 3-year residency)
- Comprehensive exams are typically completed after coursework is completed.
- Students usually submit their thesis proposal by the end of Year 2 (Year 3 for a 3-year residency).

In addition students are expected to:

- present at a scholarly or professional conference at least once.
- submit at least 2 manuscripts to a peer-reviewed journal(s) as first author.
- apply for at least one funding/scholarship award prior to or during their program.

Student goals (What are this particular student's goals for their own learning, and/or for their future path with PhD completion?):

This student is in Year ___ of the program in a 2-year residency.
 3-year residency.

For 3-year residency

- HLTH5101, HLTH5102, additional research methods elective underway
- HLTH5101, HLTH5102 additional research methods elective completed

For all students

- Supervisory Committee established
- Student meets with Committee at least twice per year
- Student meets with supervisor regularly (how often? _____)
- Required coursework is underway
- Required coursework is completed
- Comprehensive exams are underway
- Comprehensive exams are completed
- Thesis proposal is underway
- Thesis proposal is complete and approved (date: _____)
- Data collection/analysis is underway
- Thesis writing is underway
- Student is preparing for defense
- Student has applied for scholarships/funding
- Student has presented at conference(s)
- Student has prepared manuscript(s) for submission/publication

Please comment below on the student's progress to date, keeping in mind the program goals, the student's own goals, and Graduate Studies expectations regarding developing research capacity, critical analysis, originality/creativity, independence, industriousness, and high-level communication skills.

Please explain any concerns about student progress to date.

Plans for student progress over the next year?

Comment and feedback from student:

Once completed, the supervisor(s) should email this form to all the committee members, the student and phdhealth@dal.ca.