Diagnostic Skills

1. Continues development of more sophisticated interviewing skills.
2. Completes all basic battery, special tests, and communication needs assessments independently, accurately, and within an average time period.
3. Recognizes and resolves test inconsistencies with minimal supervision.
4. Performs hearing aid evaluation, selection, verification, validation, counselling, and follow-up on adults and children.
5. Performs ABR evaluations with increased proficiency including interpretation of results and report writing.
6. Performs paediatric evaluation on any age, interprets results and makes recommendations.
7. Conveys audiologic information accurately, gives clear-cut audiologic or management recommendations, brings developing responsiveness to issues and concerns that arise during feedback sessions.
8. Makes appropriate referrals.

Feedback/Self-Evaluation/Professionalism

1. Draws accurate post-session conclusions about ongoing performance (self and client) with minimal to no supervision and follows through with appropriate procedures.
2. Independently provides direct counselling and accurately self-evaluates counselling skills.
3. Following observation, demonstrates an understanding of the technique used by the supervisor when interviewing, assessing, treating, or counselling clients and their families.
4. Demonstrates knowledge and appropriate use of terminology.
5. Reads and comprehends materials that have been recommended by the supervisor.
6. Positively and actively participates in the clinical and supervisory process.
7. Recognizes the need to seek help and advice from the supervisor and has developed the skill to do so.
8. Self-evaluates own performance (strengths and weaknesses).
9. Is punctual for all related activities.

Administrative/Technical

1. Writes sophisticated, cohesive, comprehensive reports. Reports incomplete or complicated findings showing an awareness of relationships between daily function and clinical findings.
2. Demonstrates a consistent valid approach to accurate data collection.
3. Awareness of administrative and facility procedures and follows through (i.e., filing, service log completions, appropriate forms, etc.)