Do you have a plan?

How will you pay?

Create a budget.

Medical School is expensive so having a financial plan and establishing a budget will keep your debt (and stress) more manageable. Use this template to complete a cash flow to start your planning.

NOTE:

Government funding is interest free during medical school.

Contact your financial institution to discuss a Professional Student Line of Credit.

NOTE:

Interest is charged as soon as you withdraw funds.

Watch for email notifications to apply for available scholarships, awards, financial aid and bursaries.
