

DALHOUSIE
UNIVERSITY

FACULTY OF MEDICINE

Call for Nominations

Dr. G. W. Archibald Gold-headed Cane Award in the Medical Humanities

Presented each year to a physician faculty member who:

- 1. Integrates scholarly work related to the humanities into their professional life and acts as a mentor in scholarship and/or research in the medical humanities.*
- 2. Exemplifies a humanistic approach to clinical care.*
- 3. Integrates the humanities in their professional life.*
- 4. Serves as a role model by stimulating learners to engage with the humanities in their professional lives.*

Nominations will be accepted from any medical trainee, faculty or staff member of the Faculty of Medicine by: Deadline extended to March 18, 2024 at medhuman@dal.ca

Submission requirements:

- 1. Nomination Letter outlining how the individual meets the above four criteria.
- 2. Letters of Support (maximum 3),
- 3. Abbreviated CV (3-pages, font size 12)

Previous Recipients

2002: Ronald Stewart, Emergency Medicine
2003: Jock Murray, Neurology
2004: Ivar Mendez, Neurosurgery
2005: Ian Cameron, Family Medicine
2006: Vonda Hayes, Family Medicine
2007: Margaret Casey, Family Medicine
2008: Richard Goldbloom, Pediatrics
2009: Gerri Frager, Pediatrics
2010: Lara Hazelton, Psychiatry
2011: Wendy Stewart, Pediatrics
2012: Brian Hennen, Family Medicine
2013: R.N.Anderson, Medicine

2014: Mary Lynch, Anesthesia, Pain Management and Perioperative Medicine
2015: David Haase, Department of Medicine
2016: Merv Shaw, Family Medicine
2017/18: Stephen Phillips, Division of Neurology
2019: Kenneth Rockwood, Geriatric Medicine and Neurology
2020: Andrew Lynk, Pediatrics
2021: Thomas Baskett, Obstetrics and Gynaecology
2022: Dr. Monika Dutt, Public Health and Family Medicine, Cape Breton
2023: Dr. Liz Brennan, Family Medicine, Antigonish