

Schedule of Speakers and Presentations for the Dalhousie Society for the History of Medicine's Program for 2026-2027 (virtual @ 7:30 pm Atlantic)

- 5 October 2026 Eric Story
“Wounded: A Forgotten History of Canada’s Great War”
- 2 November 2026 Courtney Mrazak
“Counting Consumption: Demographics an Institutional Life in Maritime Sanatoria”
- 7 December 2026 Jock Murray
“A Physician looks at Christmas”
- 4 January 2027 Allan MacDonald
“Three Canadians initiate the 20th century revolution in biology in 1944”
- 1 February 2027 Zlato Pozeg
“The Role of New Brunswick in the development of the heart lung machine”
- 1 March 2027 Tom Baskett
“Ambroise Pare – Surgeon Extraordinaire”
- 5 April 2027 Vivian McAlister
‘BATAILLE DE MONT-SAINT-JEAN: how military medicine was used to restore French dignity following the defeat at Waterloo’
- 3 May 2027 Laurette Geldenhuys
“The Symbol of Medicine: The Rod of Asclepius vs the Caduceus, and secondly: Granulomatosis with Polyangitis (Wegener's Granulomatosis) Then and Now”