

Medical Humanities-HEALS

Healing & Education through the Art + Life Skills

2021-2022 Schedule of Speakers and Presentations, Dalhousie Society for the History of Medicine

Time: 7:00 pm

Location/Delivery: To be confirmed

2021

Mon, October 4 Jock Murray “Ten Cent Doctor”: From Dalhousie to the Electric Chair

Mon, November 1 Karim Mukhida “The History of Hospital Design and Architecture”

Mon, December 6 Ian Cameron “Dr. MacDougall’s Christmas Miracle”

2022

Mon, January 10 Des Leddin “The Discovery of Global Warming”

Mon, February 7 Tom Baskett “A History of Abortion Legislation”

Mon, March 7 Vivian McAlister “The Genicular Anastomosis from John Hunter to Today: Anatomy, Pathology, or Plagiarized Mythology?”

Mon, April 4 Allan Marble “Physicians and Surgeons who practised among the Acadians and the French in Cape Breton prior to 1758”

Mon, May 2 Susan Lamb, PhD at Johns Hopkins- AMS Lecturer in Medical History “Bicultural Medicine: University of Ottawa’s Aims and Aspirations for Its New Medical School, 1945-1965”