

Medical Humanities-HEALS

Healing & Education through the Art + Life Skills

2022-2023 Schedule of Speakers and Presentations, Dalhousie Society for the History of Medicine (all presentations via Zoom) Time: 7:00 pm

2022

- October 3 Phil Belitsky & Stephen Beed ‘The Unending Saga of Organ Donation’
- November 7 Tom Marrie ‘Q Fever – the Rise and Fall of a Disease in Nova Scotia’
- December 5 Peter Twohig ‘Facts fall out of me slowly’ Imagination, medicine and politics in the novels of John Irving’

2023

- January 9 Vivian McAlister ‘Update on the Biography of Guy Carleton Jones from Childhood in the “Waegwoltic” to Captivity during the Second War’
- February 6 Mary MacCara “Minard's Liniment and the Nova Scotians who helped it become the King of Pain”
- March 6 Des Leddin ‘Notable Lives: Sheila Sherlock and the Foundation of Hepatology’
- April 3 Tom Baskett ‘Boyd and Grant: The Parallel Careers of Two Best Selling Medical Authors’
- May 1 Robert Strang ‘Lessons from the NS COVID 19 response’
- June 5 Emma Martel ‘What kind of mother are you: The Influence of 1918 Advertisements on the Relationship between Women and Medicine’