

DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY HUMANITIES HEALS
PROGRAM IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE:
THE HEALTH PROFESSIONS CHOIR IS BACK!!

We are delighted to welcome our new director, Sue Kember. Sue is the Director of the ScotianAires and holds an Honours BA in Music and Drama from the University of Guelph. She moved to NS in 1993 and began teaching piano and voice in her home studio. She joined the ScotianAires in 1994, became Assistant Director in 2005 and in 2006 took over as Director. Sue is a certified Singing Category Judge with Harmony Incorporated. She is excited about this new challenge!

The Health Professions Choir is part of the Music in Medicine Program in the Humanities HEALs program at Dalhousie University. It is open to all students, faculty, staff and community. Membership is free!

Are you free on Wednesday evenings?
Do you like to sing?

Come on out and join us:

Where: Theatre B in the Tupper Link.

When: Starting Wednesday, March 26th, 2025 at 6:30PM

Bring your voice and come ready to have fun!