

Jennifer Ahmed
Recipient of the Dr. Ron Stewart Award in 2007

Originally from St. John's, Newfoundland, Jennifer Ahmed became an active member in the International Health Education Program as a representative for her class in 2006. Jennifer also organized the International Health Speakers Series in 2005-2006.

Jennifer traveled to Tanzania in 2005 as part of the Tanzania Study Tour and shared some of what she learned from her experiences, particularly with Kimara Peer Educators and Health Promoters Trust Fund at the 2005 Canadian Conference on International Health. In December 2006 Jennifer was named one of the top 30 under 30 by the Halifax Daily News, along with 2006 Dr. Ron Stewart Award winner, Dan Boudreau.
