GLOBAL HEALTH FELLOWSHIP

QEII Health Sciences Centre, Halifax, Nova Scotia

THE OPPORTUNITY

The Dalhousie University Department of Anesthesia, Pain Management & Perioperative Medicine is seeking an exceptional fellowship candidate to join our growing team of experts in global health. The Department is recognized nationally and internationally as a centre of clinical excellence in anesthesia care and has one of the highest ranked residency training programs in Canada. The successful candidate will practise and teach at the QEII Health Sciences Centre, the largest tertiary care hospital in Atlantic Canada, and at the affiliated hospitals of the University of Rwanda.

Our global health fellowship offers many opportunities to develop skills in clinical care, judgment, teaching and research in Canada and abroad.

The global health fellow will learn from faculty and staff mentors who have extensive anesthesia experience in resource-poor countries. During the twelve-month fellowship, the fellow will have the opportunity to:

- Work for up to three months in Rwanda as part of the Canadian Anesthesiologists' Society International Education Foundation (CASIEF) program;
- Practise clinical anesthesia in Halifax;
- Supervise residents from a developing country; and
- Complete a scholarly project involving research, education or policy development.

After completing the program, the global health fellow will be well prepared for a career in global health work and will have skills to establish a global health program in an academic department.
