

Abortion Care

At the completion of this seminar the resident will:

1. Be able to counsel women appropriately regarding management options for spontaneous or therapeutic abortions and subsequent care.
2. Be aware of medical and surgical options for spontaneous and therapeutic abortions in their region including procedure, criteria and referral methods.
3. Recognize potential complications of medical and surgical abortions and of spontaneous abortions and initiate appropriate management.