

Poverty

At the completion of this workshop the resident will:

1. Be able to use simple interventions to screen for poverty in a primary care setting.
2. Understand the various Maritime and Canadian income security systems.
3. Be able to employ a user-friendly, web-based resource that can be used to navigate income support systems in clinical practice