

Locum Gastroenterologist
Division of Digestive Care & Endoscopy, Department of Medicine
Dalhousie University/Nova Scotia Health Authority
Halifax, Nova Scotia

The Department of Medicine (Dalhousie University and Nova Scotia Health Authority) seeks applications for a locum Gastroenterologist/Hepatologist at the QEII Health Sciences Centre, Halifax, NS.

The Division of Digestive Care & Endoscopy is one of 15 divisions in the Department of Medicine and is a leader of tertiary clinical services in the Atlantic Provinces. In addition to playing an important clinical role in the Department, Division members have excellent opportunities for collaborative research and educational endeavours with protected time for scholarly activities to ensure rewarding, fulfilling career development within a Clinical Academic Funding Plan. It is expected that the successful candidate will provide specialty care in hepatology in addition to general gastroenterology during the locum.

This is a combined University and Hospital position. Academic rank will be dependent upon qualifications and experience. Candidates must have FRCP(C) certification (or equivalent) in Gastroenterology. Candidates must be eligible for specialty licensure in Nova Scotia.

The Department of Medicine is committed to fostering a collegial culture grounded in diversity and inclusiveness.

Please send a cover letter, Curriculum Vitae, and names and contact details of three referees to: Dr. Ian Epstein and Dr. Steven Gruchy, c/o Sandy Porter, Team Lead, Division of Digestive Care & Endoscopy, Sandy.Porter@nshealth.ca

Closing date for applications is January 31, 2022
