

DoM

DEPARTMENT of MEDICINE
Improving Lives

OBJECTIVES FOR WEDNESDAY SEMINARS

Thrombosis

1. Understand the pathogenesis and major risk factors for the development of venous thromboembolism
2. Recognize the clinical presentations of and appreciate the means for the diagnosis of deep vein thrombosis and pulmonary embolism including clinical decision rules, d-dimer and diagnostic testing
3. Know the treatment options for deep vein thrombosis and pulmonary embolism including the roles of anticoagulation, thrombolytic therapy and inferior vena caval filters